Select Bibliography
in the course
Philosophy for Understanding Theology

Useful one-volume surveys are Anthony Kenny, A Brief History of Western Philosophy
Bertrand Russell, History of Western Philosophy

A multi-volume work, always reliable, whose scope is the same but gives much more detail, is Frederick Copleston, A History of Philosophy

A useful book, written from the standpoint of a Christian philosopher, indicating the role of reason in several different schools of philosophy is
C. Stephen Evans, Faith Beyond Reason

A highly recommended book on the philosophy of thinking (i.e., thinking about thinking) is Hannah Arendt, The Life of the Mind
(This book, however, presupposes considerable familiarity with philosophy.)

For books on specific topics in the course please see the instructor.